8 March 1951

Dear Admiral Anderson,

In General Smith's absence I want to acknowledge your letter of March 5 calling the General's attention to [] experience and qualifications, and advising of his interest in associating with the Central Intelligence Agency.

I am taking the liberty of asking our Personnel Director to initiate action on this to see if we can find a place for [] that he would find interesting and where he can be helpful to us.

Your letter will be on General Smith's desk at the time of his return and I will advise him of the action taken so far. I know he will appreciate your trouble in bringing [] name to his attention.

Sincerely,

Vice Admiral W. S. Anderson
